Go to greenenergysummit.us for more information

The 2010 Green Energy Summit invites you to become a volunteer at the Summit. We expect to attract more than 4,000 attendees from Wisconsin and adjacent states. To achieve its goals the Summit relies on all the help it could receive from volunteers. There are varieties of capacities where you can volunteer your time, your skills, and your cooperation.

Please fill out the following Volunteer Application form. This form will be used to identify the areas that the Summit could benefit from your assistance. Upon receipt and confirmation of your application we will provide you with more details about your assignment. As a token of our appreciation for your valuable contribution you may attend the summit for free, if you desire, during the remainder of your assigned day. Volunteers must also register for the 2010 Green Energy Summit. Please visit www.greenenergysummit.us for more information and/or registration.

We look forward to having you there, and appreciate how much you will add to our great event. If you have questions contact R. Setoodeh, MATC, setoodeer@matc.edu.
